Letter No. 1002/372 dated 6th April 1904 from the Inspector General of Police in Mysore requesting that the Senior Surgeon may be moved to depute one of the Asst Surgeons attached to the Victoria Hospital to teach — in the Police Training School for a period of 2 months from the 15th idem.

Subd with a draft order for approval. The Inspector General's letter is silent on the subject of paying remuneration to the Assistant Surgeon for teaching ambulance. No provision is made in the Police Budget on this account.

The previous references are not traceable in the General Records. Ascertain from Medical Branch whether Dr Norwood was the Assistant Surgeon who was employed to teach ambulance. I believe [illegible] SV 7/11/04
